Audience Participation: The Commission will invite your comments and concerns twice during tonight's meeting. First, you may address issues on tonight's agenda. A second opportunity to speak will occur later, when you may address any issue within the Planning Commission's Jurisdiction. It is the board's usual practice to listen without immediate comment, your concerns are noted, and you may request follow-up. To address the board, please rise and state your name, and township of residence. Please limit your comments to three minutes.
